

CONTENTS.

X
Per C394

v. 2
1876/77

|  | PAGE                                |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| Last Battles, and Death in India, of Colonel Wm. Baillie of Dunain. By Charles Fraser-Mackintosh, F.S.A.S., M.P. ....        | 1, 41                               |
| The Prophecies of the Brahan Seer, Coinnneach Odhar Fiosaiche . By the Editor ....                                    | 18, 54, 91, 128, 163, 220, 258, 297 |
| The Highland Ceilidh. By Alastair Og—  |                                     |
| IX. Family Worship by the Old Bard, and How the Macleods were driven out of Loch Tolly Island ....                           | 27                                  |
| X. How the Mackenzies first came to Gairloch. In Gaelic ....   | 61                                  |
| XI. Do., do. A translation into English ....   | 107                                 |
| XII. Mort nan Leodach agus Latha na Luinge —Battle at Raasay, between the Macleods and the Mackenzies. In Gaelic .... | 193                                 |
| XIII. Freiceadan a Choire Dhuibh , and Tigh Dige nan Gorm-ghlac —A Gaelic Poem ....                            | 270                                 |
| XIV. Uisdean Mor Mac 'Ille Phadruig . In Gaelic ....  | 467                                 |
| The Ossianic Controversy, between Dr Hately Waddell and Hector Maclean, Islay. Part III. ....                                | 32                                  |
| Gaelic Songster— An T'Oranaiche . A Review ....   | 36, 278                             |
| Elementary Lessons in Gaelic. A Review ....  | 38                                  |
| Seumas an Tuim —James Grant of Carron. By Albannach ....  | 67                                  |
| John Mackay. By Torquill ....  | 70                                  |
| The Language and Literature of the Highlands. A Review ....  | 73, 195                             |
| Stewart's Element: of Gaelic Grammar. A Review ....  | 79                                  |
| The Elegies of Rob Donn. I. By Kiarbrace ....  | 81                                  |
| Do. do. II. ....   | 136                                 |
| The Fentons of the Aird. By Alexander Fraser ....  | 48                                  |
| Some Peculiarities of Gaelic Poetry. By Sporrán Donn ....  | 112                                 |
| Notes on the Ossianic Controversy. By Æneas Paulus ....  | 116                                 |
| Destitution in the Highlands and Islands. By the Rev. Alexander Macgregor, M.A. ....   | 121, 161, 214, 396, 434             |
| Superstitious Stories of the Highlanders. By Mary Mackellar ....   | 149, 211, 327                       |
| Annual Dinner of the Gaelic Society of Inverness ....  | 153                                 |
| Poetical Works of Charles Mackay, LL.D. A Review ....  | 159                                 |
| Teaching Gaelic in Highland Schools. By A. C. Cameron, M.A. ....   | 181, 236                            |
| North Uist and Benbecula—Two Sonnets. By Professor Blackie ....  | 188                                 |
| Kyle—its Meaning. By Hector Maclean, Islay ....  | 190                                 |
| John Mackenzie, of "The Gaelic Beauties." A Memoir. By the Editor ....   | 201                                 |
| Gaelic Competition in Glen-Urquhart ....   | 224                                 |
| The Last Scenes of Flora Macdonald's Life, &c. By the Rev. Alexander Macgregor, M.A. ....                                    | 241, 305, 344                       |
| Brigadier Mackintosh of Borlum. By Alexander Mackintosh Shaw ....  | 249, 291                            |
| Prehistoric Names of Weapons. By Hector Maclean ....   | 264                                 |
| An Echo of Celtic Etymologies. By Donald Macgregor ....  | 267                                 |
| Highland Battles and Highland Arms—I. By J.M.W.S. ....   | 281                                 |
| II. Killiecrankie ....   | 321                                 |
| III. Sheriffmuir ....  | 369                                 |
| IV. The Forty-five ....  | 409                                 |
| V. Culloden ....   | 470                                 |
| Defence of the Orthography of the Gaelic Language. By the late John Mackenzie, of "The Beauties" ....                        | 312, 332                            |
| Cawdor Castle. By Torquill ....  | 317                                 |
| History of the Gaelic Society of London—by the Editor—and full Report of Centenary Celebration ....                          | 353                                 |
| Popular Gaelic Melodies. A Review ....   | 367                                 |

|  | PAGE.        |
|--|--------------|
| Highland Superstition— Alain Duinn . By MacIain                                       | 378          |
| The Education of the Highlander. By Professor Blackie  | 385          |
| — The Rout of Moy. By Torquil  | 392          |
| Alean Buidhe —the Bard of Glenderain. By the late John Mackenzie, of "The Beauties"   | 403          |
| — "Bonnie Dundee" and Killiecrankie. By the Rev. Alex. Stewart, F.S.A.S., "Nether-Lochaber"  | 405          |
| Highlanders of the Right Stamp   | Ibid. |
| Annual Assembly of the Gaelic Society of Inverness   | 407          |
| Depopulation of Aberarder, in Badenoch, in 1770. By Charles Fraser-Macintosh, F.S.A.S., M.P. | 418          |
| The New Celtic Professor for Edinburgh   | 444          |
| Kilchurn Castle. By Torquil  | 447          |
| Sermons in Irish Gaelic—Bishop O'Gallagher's. A Review                                       | 448          |
| The Poetry and Prose of a Highland Craft. By the Editor                                      | 449          |
| Lyrical Poetry. By the Rev. George Gillilan  | 458          |
| Iain Ruadh MacDhughail —John Roy Macaulay. By MacIain                                 | 478          |
| To the Reader  | 486          |

CORRESPONDENCE.

|   |          |
|---|----------|
| Logan's Scottish Gael   | 80       |
| The Origin of the Clan Mackenzie  | 275      |
| The Highland Staghound. By George Cupples   | 406      |
| — "Bonnie Dundee" and Killiecrankie—A Reply. By J.M.W.S.                            | 427      |
| Highland Superstition— Alain Duinn . By Mary Mackellar and Kenneth Macdonald | 428, 429 |
| — The Rout of Moy and Destitution in the Highlands. By Malcolm MacAlpine            | 430      |
| Suarachan , and the Battle of Park. By Murdo Macrae                          | 432      |

POETRY.

|   |                          |
|---|--------------------------|
| The Clearing of the Glens. By Principal Bishop of St Andrews, and Professor of Poetry in the University of Oxford | 7, 46, 93, 141, 174, 235 |
| The Cot in the Dell. By William Allan   | 25                       |
| Altnacraig. By Mary Mackellar   | 40                       |
| The Alien Chiefs. By William Allan  | 152                      |
| Two Sonnets. By Professor Blackie   | 189                      |
| Seven Sonnets on Lochawe. By Ewan Maccoll   | 255                      |
| Conloch and Gubona—a Translation. By Aeneas Paulus  | 336                      |
| Elegy to a Dog—a Translation. By the Rev. Alexander Stewart, F.S.A.S., "Nether Lochaber"                          | 342                      |
| Give me a Cot. By William Allan   | 402                      |
| The Fisherman's Song, or Jorram . By William Allan   | 443                      |
| Alastair Ban . By William Allan  | 457                      |

GAELIC SONGS, WITH MUSIC—Sol-fa Notation.

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Mairi Laghach                          | 120 |
| Breghaichean Ghlinn-Broan              | 160 |
| Oran do Mhac 'ic Alastair              | 200 |
| Cumha—Och nan Och Leag Iad Thu         | 235 |
| Oran Chloinn Ghriogair                 | 280 |
| Moladh do h' Oighe Gaidhealaich        | 320 |
| Oran Mulaid—Tha Mise Fo Mhulad 'san Am | 352 |
| Duanag do'n Uisge-Bheatha              | 408 |
| Thug Mi Gaol do'n Fhear Bhan           | 447 |
| Oran Gaoidh do Charaid Oig             | 488 |